Leadership

We are pleased to offer two leadership development programmes for 2019-20.

RSA Academies' Leadership Development Programme (Middle or Senior)

Brief Overview:

Our leadership development programme has been put together in collaboration with Birmingham City University, and is designed to provide an effective balance of theoretic and practical leadership development. Colleagues will be required to lead a project within their school, with assessment as follows:

- Project Assessment - presentation of the project impact to Senior Team
- Written Assessment – evidence against leadership standards/competences

Venue: Abbeywood Teaching School; Wood Piece Lane, Redditch, B98 9LR

Facilitators:

Our facilitators are experienced senior leaders and have delivered leadership training through NPQML and NPQSL.

Who is it suitable for:

Aspiring or current middle leaders. Aspiring or current senior leaders. The elective modules will be different for aspiring senior leaders, as will the nature of the leadership project.

What will you take away with you?

Leadership strategies and resources.

What is the intended impact?

You will develop your skills as a leader. You will understand the key challenges and responsibilities for leaders within schools. You will be able to lead a project within your school and receive valuable feedback on your leadership development.

Cost: £250
